Dear Stu:

I am preparing a book tentatively entitled, "Unified Theories of Cognition," which will be published by Harvard University Press. It is intended for a scholarly audience.

I would like your permission to use the material indicated below in my book, in all forms (including nonprofit special media editions for the visually impaired) and in all languages, including future editions and translations. I wish to obtain nonexclusive world rights. I will, of course, give full credit to the author and publisher.

A release form is given below for your convenience. The duplicate copy of this request is for your files.

Sincerely yours,

Allen Newell
University Professor of Computer Science
