

Personal History of Tetsuo Kondo
Member of the House of Representatives, Japan

Place and Date of Birth:

Yamagata Pref., Japan, August 11, 1929

Present Address:

No. 412, Kudan Giinshukusha, 2-14-3, Fujimi, Chiyoda-ku,
Tokyo 102 Japan

Permanent Address:

6-34, Matsunami, 2-chome, Yamagata-shi, Yamagata Pref.,
990 Japan

Education:

Graduated from Hitotsubashi Univ. (Department of Economics)
in March, 1953

Studied Economic Theory and International Finance at Univ.
of California, Berkeley, from 1954 to 1955 as a Fulbright Scholarship Exchange Student

Attended Prof. Henry A. Kissinger's International Seminar
at Harvard Univ. in the summer of 1961

Occupation:

Entered the Minister of Finance in April, 1953, and served at various posts in the Ministry of Finance and the Economic Planning Agency

Served as an Assistant to the Executive Director of Japan for the International Monetary Fund, in Washington, D.C.
from 1963 to 1966

Served as an Administrative Secretary to Minister of Labor, in 1970

Political Career:

Elected to the House of Representatives from the Yamagata First Electoral District in September, 1972 (now in the seventh term)

Served as:

Parliamentary Vice Minister of Administrative Management;
Parliamentary Vice Minister of Education;
Parliamentary Vice Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries;

Director of the International Bureau of the Liberal
Democratic Party (LDP);

Chairman of the Standing Committee on Science and Technology
of the House of Representatives;

Chairman of the Communication Policy Committee of the LDP;
Deputy Chairman of the Policy Affairs Research Council of the LDP;

Minister of State for Economic Planning;

At present:

Acting Chairman of Financial Problem Research Council and Acting Chairman of the Special Committee on Space Development
of the LDP;

Publications:

- "International Strategy of Nuclear Energy." (1982)
- "New Era of Gene." with coauthors (1983)
- "Communication, Information and New Media." (1984)
- "Internationalization of Telecommunication in Japan." (1984)
- "Pan Pacific INS (Information Network System) Strategy."(1985)
- "New Age of Infor-Communication Revolution."(1986)
- "Economic Policy of Japan, 1986.'(1986)
- "Economic Policy of Japan,1987."(1987)
- "New U.S.-Japan Economic Relation."(1989)